An independent that has been in business over 30 years. We specialize in good reading, fun as well as serious. We carry children's books, Judaica, beautiful gift books, psychology, lots of unusual cookbooks and of course we will order your favorites for you. If you have grandchildren who live in a different city, join our Grandparent club and we will send her/him a suitable book once a month. We call our discount system The Baker's Dozen Book Club. After buying 12 books your average price will be credited to your thirteenth book. To keep it active, purchase 2 books a year.
